1985 ELBALA ELBA HIGH SCHOOL ELBA, ALABAMA

For every ending, there was a beginning . . . To most of us, the beginning of our school years seemed like only yesterday; yet, during these fleeting years, our reaching the senior year was a constant dream.

In the pursuit of this dream, the friendships made, happinesses shared, and troubles endured cemented a bond that could only grow more permanent during the ensuing years. Even though attainment of this dream arrived all too quickly, there were moments when time appeared to stand still . . . It was here during the "stillness" that we grew, matured, and learned to handle success as well as defeat.

Our years at Elba High School provided the foundation for our lives ahead, and we cherished all of our experiences during this time. However, the 1984-1985 school year, with its significant status for us, was "special," and we remembered it as THE YEAR THAT WAS . . .

HOMECOMING '84

Miss B. Q. 1984

Love, Dawn

Homecoming 1984! What an exciting week October 22-26 was for the Elba High School student body! Each day offered students special activities to show school spirit and pride.

Homecoming festivities accelerated Thursday night with the traditional bonfire staged by the varsity cheerleaders. Afterwards the enthusiastic throng joined in Elba's first street jam, an enjoyable experience which involved everyone.

At 1:30 Friday afternoon the Elba City Schools assembled in Leroy Miller Memorial Stadium for the coronation of the queen and her court consisting of: Michele Cole, senior attendant; Shellye Amison, junior attendant; Stephanie Crittenden, sophomore attendant; Tab Bryan, freshman attendant; Christina Carpenter, black attendant; and the 1984 Homecoming Queen — Amy Ellis, who was crowned by the senior class president, Michael Maddox. Next, the varsity cheerleaders led the eager crowd in the traditional pep rally.

The traditional homecoming parade began at 4:00. The class of 1954 was honored as well as the queen and her court. This year's parade had many lovely attractions.

Friday evening's activities began at 7:00 with the presentation of the queen and her court amid field. At 7:30 the Elba Tigers came roaring onto the field anticipating another victory; and true to their season's record, the Tigers defeated the Andalusia Bulldogs 42-21.

The Homecoming dance concluded the week-long events. Thus, Homecoming 1984 faded into a treasured memory.

CAMPUS BEAUTY JENNIFER FARRIS

On the evening of December 6, 1984, thirty-six lovely young ladies graced the stage with their poise and beauty as they vied for the title of Campus Beauty and Miss Bronze. An array of beauty captured the eyes of the audience as each participant was presented in formal attire. The evening was highlighted by a production number performed by the "girls."

The coveted award of Miss Congeniality was presented to Annette Scharstein. The evening reached its climax when the runners-up and winners were named.

The Elbala staff takes pride in presenting Miss Jennifer Farris, the 1984 Campus Beauty.

THE 1984 MARCHING TIGERS

BAND DIRECTOR STEVE THOMPSON

The Elba Tiger Marching Band is basically a group of excellent students who share a love of music and enjoy working together. These students strive for discipline and perfection in all aspects of band life. Nothing daunts this tireless collection of young musicians — not the torn and muddy field at a rainy football game nor the early morning practices of the Saturday contests. The qualities these exceptional people develop — pride, discipline, self-esteem, and confidence — remain as memories of the good and bad times in the band. These qualities become a cloak for better living as the present fades into the past.

SENIORS

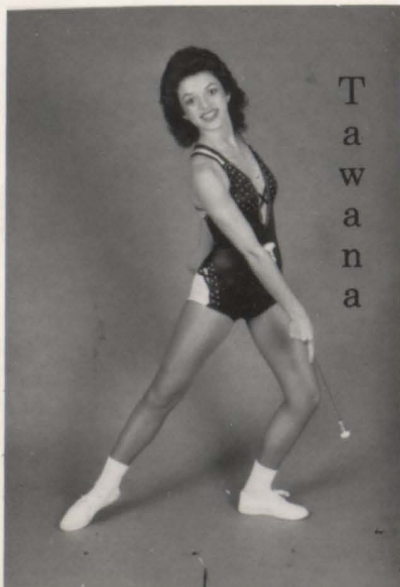

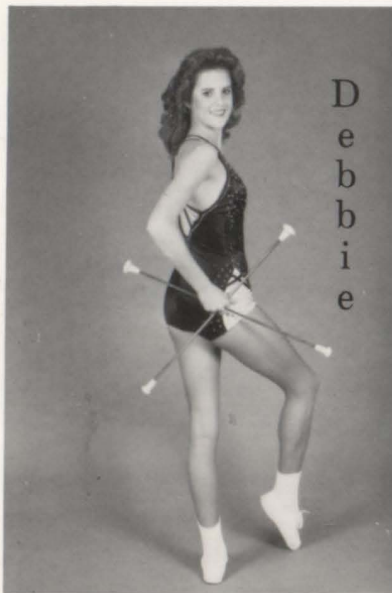

The Marching Tigers of 1984 began the year with an energetic crop of approximately forty young rookies under the untried leadership of the senior band members and the Band Council. In support of a spirited football team, the band traveled to eleven ball-games to lead the fans in the "Fight Song" and perform a variety of half-time shows. The inexperienced band proved its worth at the Atlanta Invitational Marching Band Festival in Atlanta, Georgia, when it brought home overall superior ratings and many sectional awards. Following an exuberant but exhausting Homecoming Week, the Marching Tigers earned straight superior ratings at the Southland Band Classic in Enterprise, Alabama, to show again that "practice makes perfect." The band closed the year in style with the annual Band Dance, making memories to the theme "The Roaring Twenties."

 ABOVE: "DEFENSE!"
 CENTER RIGHT: Hudson fights for extra yardage.
 RIGHT: Scott cuts off block enroute to big gain.

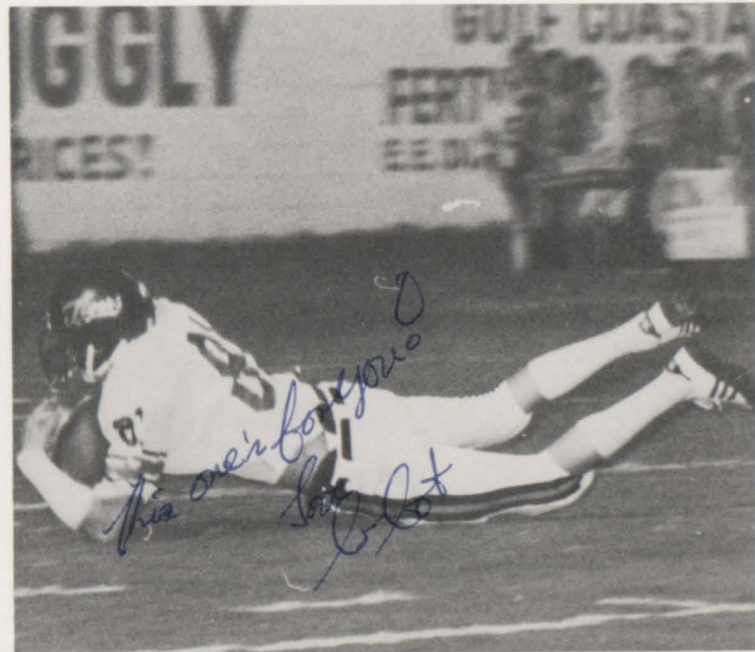

The Elba Tigers opened the 1984 season with an impressive shutout of the Charles Henderson Trojans. The offense exploded to score twenty-one points in the second half after getting off to a slow start. The defense played an outstanding game to shut down the Trojan offense and secure the Tigers' first victory. Final score: Elba 28-Troy 0.

 BELOW: Geneva tackler stops Osborn after long pass reception.

Elba took the road for the second game of the season to play the ever-powerful Geneva Panthers. The Tigers took a commanding twenty-point lead early in the game only to see the Panthers score fourteen unanswered points to close the gap to seven. The stingy Elba defense rose to hold the Panthers and post another Tiger victory. Final score: Elba 20-Geneva 14.

 RIGHT: McCollough puts move on Luverne back.

The Elba Tigers claimed their third straight win when they were hosted by Luverne. Luverne's offensive attack failed to score against the hard-hitting Elba defense while the Elba Tiger offense rolled up 35 points for a stunning blowout.

 BELOW: "Bull" carries fumble into endzone.

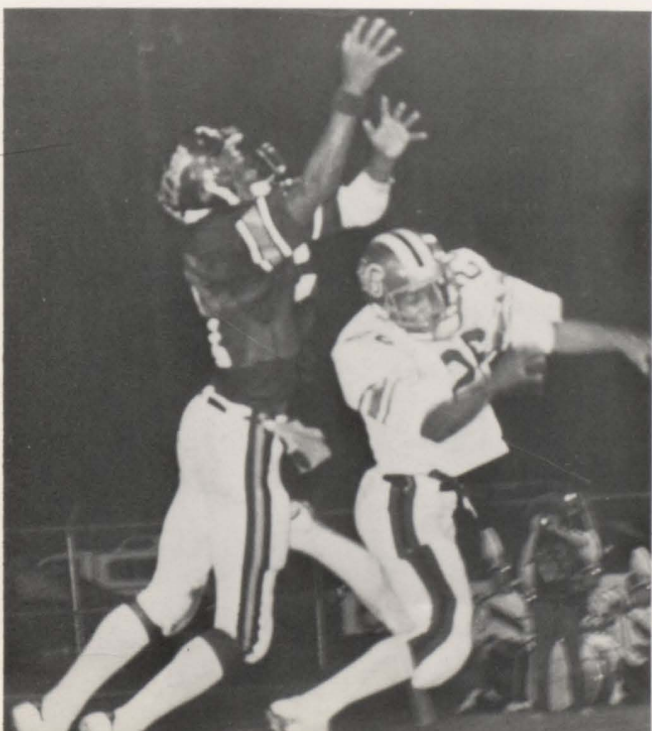

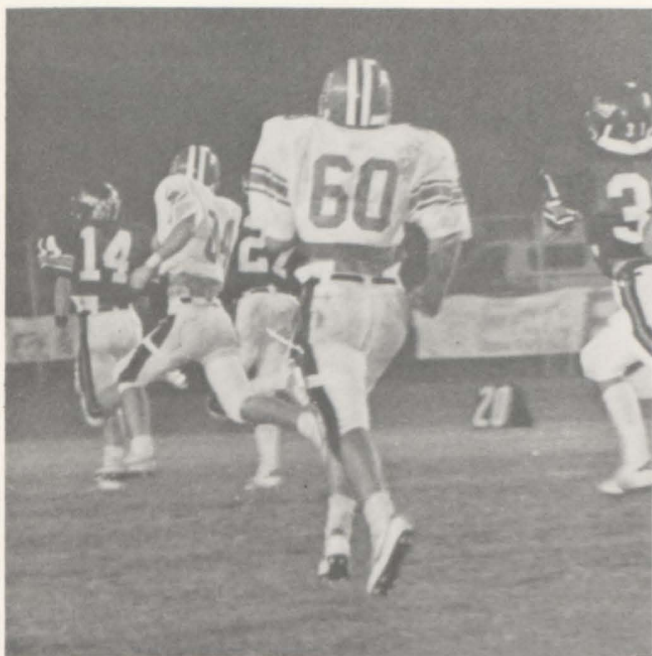

After two weeks on the road, the proud Tigers came home to host the perennial power of the Opp Bobcats. The Tiger offense was unstoppable as Elba got the breaks and took advantage of them. Although the defense gave up one touchdown, it kept the Bobcats at bay all night and contributed twelve of the scoreboard points. Fifty points against Opp maybe unbelievable, but the Elba Tigers made themselves a place in history with the fantastic 50-6 victory over the Bobcats.

RIGHT: "Skeeter" falls for extra yardage.
 BELOW: Hudson boots the winning points.
 CENTER RIGHT: Sanders and Phillips apply heavy rush on place kicker.

The confident Tigers journeyed to Pike County to take on the fired-up Brundidge Bulldogs. After playing "give away" in the first half, the Tigers used an awesome second half comeback to score 24 points and to claim a come-from-behind 33-24 win. This furious comeback upped the Tigers' record to 5-0.

 TOP RIGHT: Petty and "Killer" combine to stop Ozark runner.
 CENTER LEFT: Scott stopped after short gain.

The Carroll High School Eagles came to the foggy bottom for the sixth game of the season to face the Elba Tigers. The Tigers went into the game as the underdogs, but they showed what they were made of as they took advantage of a fumble and a missed two-point conversion to claim a 14-13 victory over the 6A Eagles.

 RIGHT: Williams applies heavy rush.

Elba, now 6-0, traveled to Troy to take on the Charles Henderson Trojans. The Trojans could still remember the first game of the season and were hoping to avenge that loss to the Tigers. However, Elba would have nothing to do with that as the Tigers again defeated Troy. Final 31-7.

 BELOW: Scott turns on the speed.

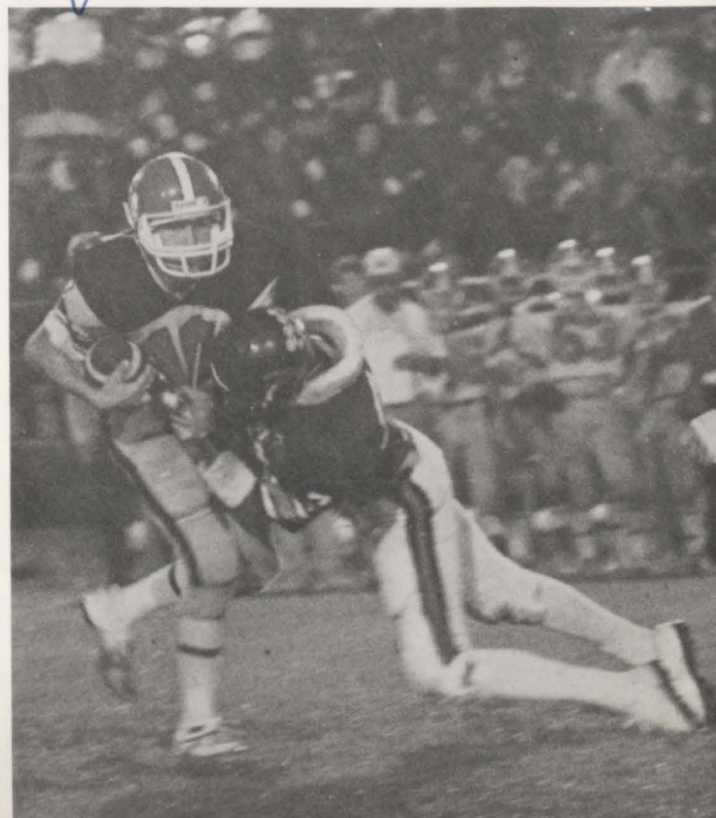

Homecoming 1984 brought the Andalusia Bulldogs to town looking to defeat Elba. The Tigers took the lead early but had to fight off a furious comeback attempt by Andalusia to post a 42-21 win. The Tigers remained undefeated with only one week left in the regular season.

 ABOVE: Scott turns on the after burners.
 CENTER RIGHT: Sanders nearly blocks punt.
 RIGHT: "Be Ware" sacks Daleville QB.

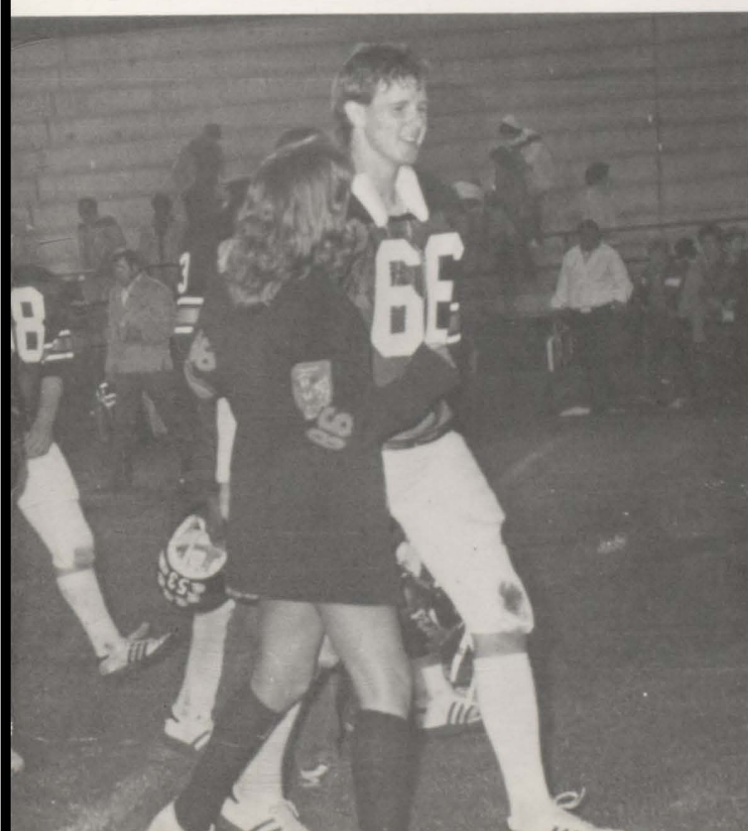

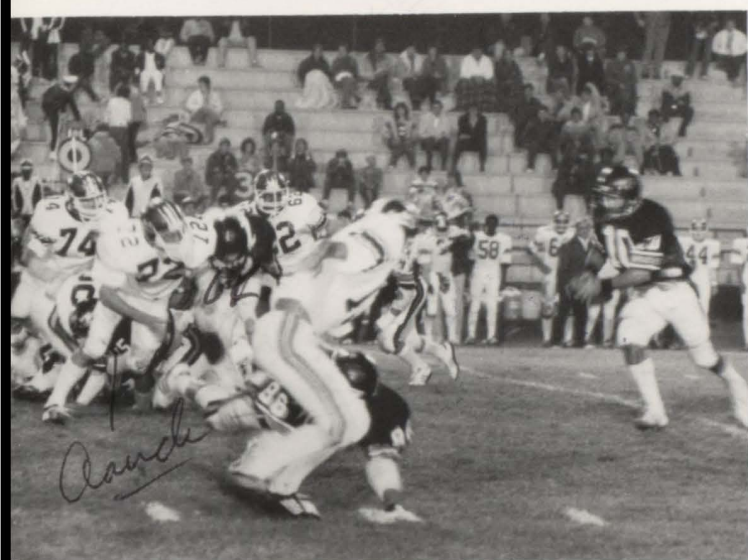

The top-ranked Tigers hosted the Daleville Warhawks in a rainstorm to end their regular season record at 9-0 for the year. The Elba defense held Daleville to 6 points while its own offense dominated the game and racked up 34 points to claim the first undefeated season in 30 years.

 BELOW: Magwood is stopped after nice gain.

The Elba Tigers opened the playoffs by hosting Abbeville in the first playoff game ever played in Elba. The Elba offense scored 29 points as the defense allowed Abbeville only six points and scored six of their own. The victory advanced the Tigers to the second round of the playoff victory. Final score: 35-6.

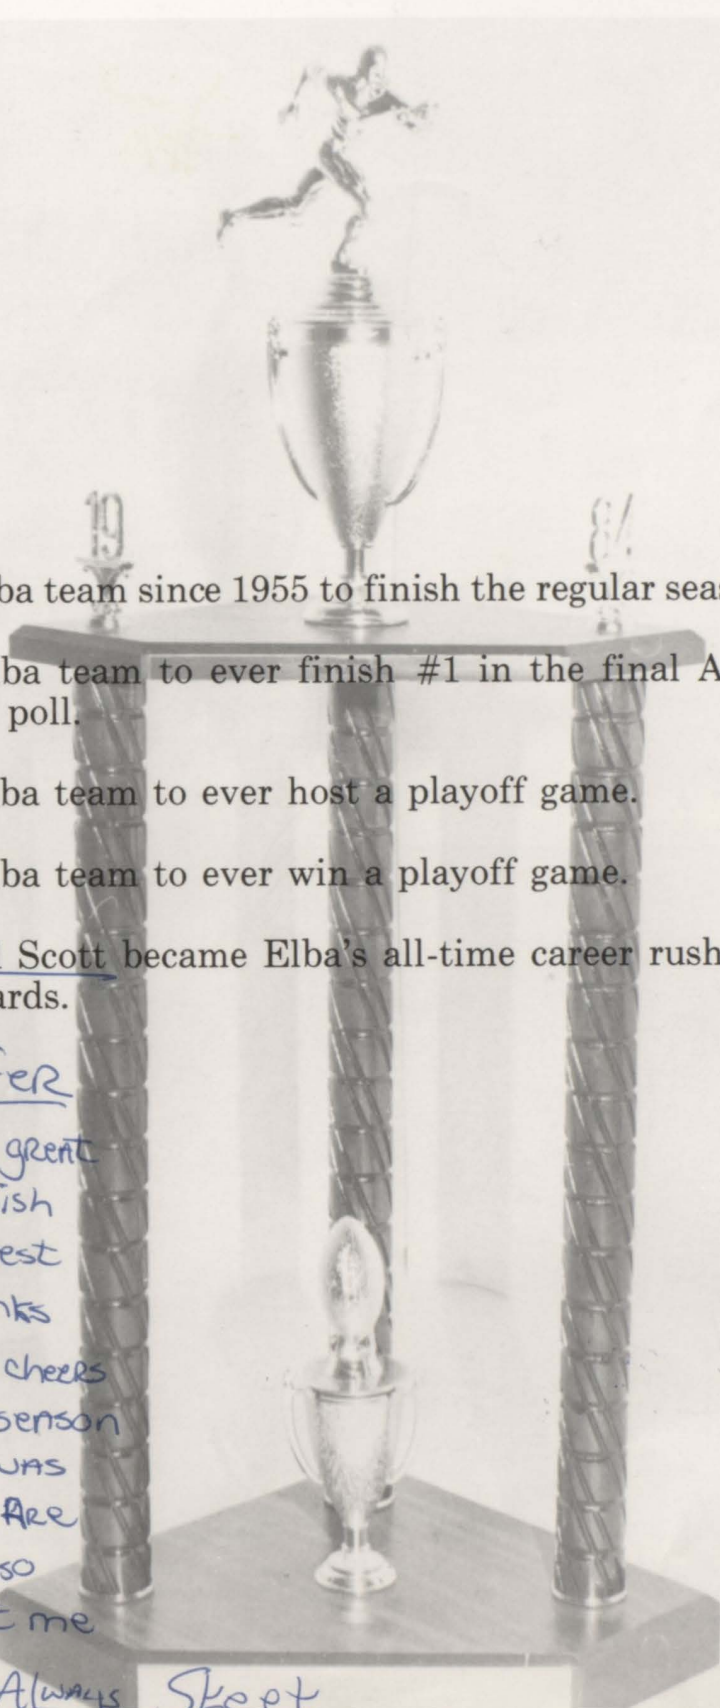

ABOVE: "Killer" stops Brundidge back for short gain.
 TOP RIGHT: "Ox" breaks tackle on his way to a big gain.
 RIGHT: Brunson trips up Brundidge back.
 BELOW: Whoa! Sanders drags down Brundidge back from behind.
 BOTTOM RIGHT: Scott finds going tough.

The undefeated Elba Tigers fell to the Pike County Bulldogs when they traveled to Brundidge for the second round of the 4A playoffs. The Bulldogs scored three quick touchdowns in the first quarter while the Tigers scored one in the second quarter. Neither team could manage any offense for the remainder of the game, and the Bulldogs put an end to the Tigers' season. Although the hopes for a State Championship were ended, the 1984 season will never be forgotten.

RECORDS SET BY THE 1984 ELBA TIGERS

- * First Elba team since 1955 to finish the regular season undefeated.
 - * First Elba team to ever finish #1 in the final Associated Press football poll.
 - * First Elba team to ever host a playoff game.
 - * First Elba team to ever win a playoff game.
 - * Michael Scott became Elba's all-time career rushing leader with 3,942 yards.

To a beautiful, fine, cool young lady (oops I forgot your perfect personality,) anyway. Jennifer its time for us to be leaving EHS and time for us to take on the real world that Mr. King and the rest of the teachers we have put for 12 long years, but we are going to make it in that LITTLE BEAVER rough world, because we are the seniors of 85, and there isn't anything that we can't handle (Right?) Good luck in the future,

P.S.
Remember Me!
Maybe I'll see you at a football game next year, if either one of us is still around Elba, AL ALABAMA or even the U.S.

*Jennifer,
 Well it's almost over, our senior year. It's been great knowing you over the past twelve or thirteen years.
 Those were the best times of our lives. I'll never forget the times we had in Drivers Ed during the tenth grade. Remember our football season because we were the best and we'll always will be.
 No one can take our good times away from us and no one can take my memories of you away. I'll never forget you. Stay in touch.
 Love,
 Jay #65*

Jennifer,
I don't even know where to begin. we both have went through a lot this year. I don't even believe it's here we are finally about to graduate. US. Class of 85.
I think this year we've been closer. I'm glad we've gotten to talk. We've tried to help you about all your problems I'm sorry if I couldn't help. But I hope I could. I'm so glad you got Campus Beauty you really did deserve it more than anybody. I've always thought you were so pretty. I wished I could be like you and go & find out about my life. I mean don't get me wrong I like what I'm doing. But I wished I could be with whoever and do whatever I go wherever I wanted to go. But anyway
I just wanted to let you know how I admired you. we've had great times here at Elba.
I hope we have more at Enterprise. we can go up there and show our stuff. Remember all the times we've skipped school. I can remember when you didn't do things like that. Hahaha I hope everything works out with you and whoever you decide to spend your time and love with. Just make sure you do what you want to do.
I'll never forget all of

Jennifer (Cold-hearted, cruel, vicious, irresponsible, immature!!)

Many girls' annuals that I've signed thus far, I have written "Well" or "What can I say" (but not yours). The first thing I would like to write to you is "I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH!" I think the world of you now, I only wish we could have become friends a few years ago. I've always thought highly of you and I've always thought that you were beautiful. (I did! Not matter if you do say I didn't) You have become very special to me, a special person I'll remember until my death. You know I kid with you about "Cold-hearted, cruel, vicious, etc....", but you know I'm not serious. (Don't you?) The time

Bob English, Mayor

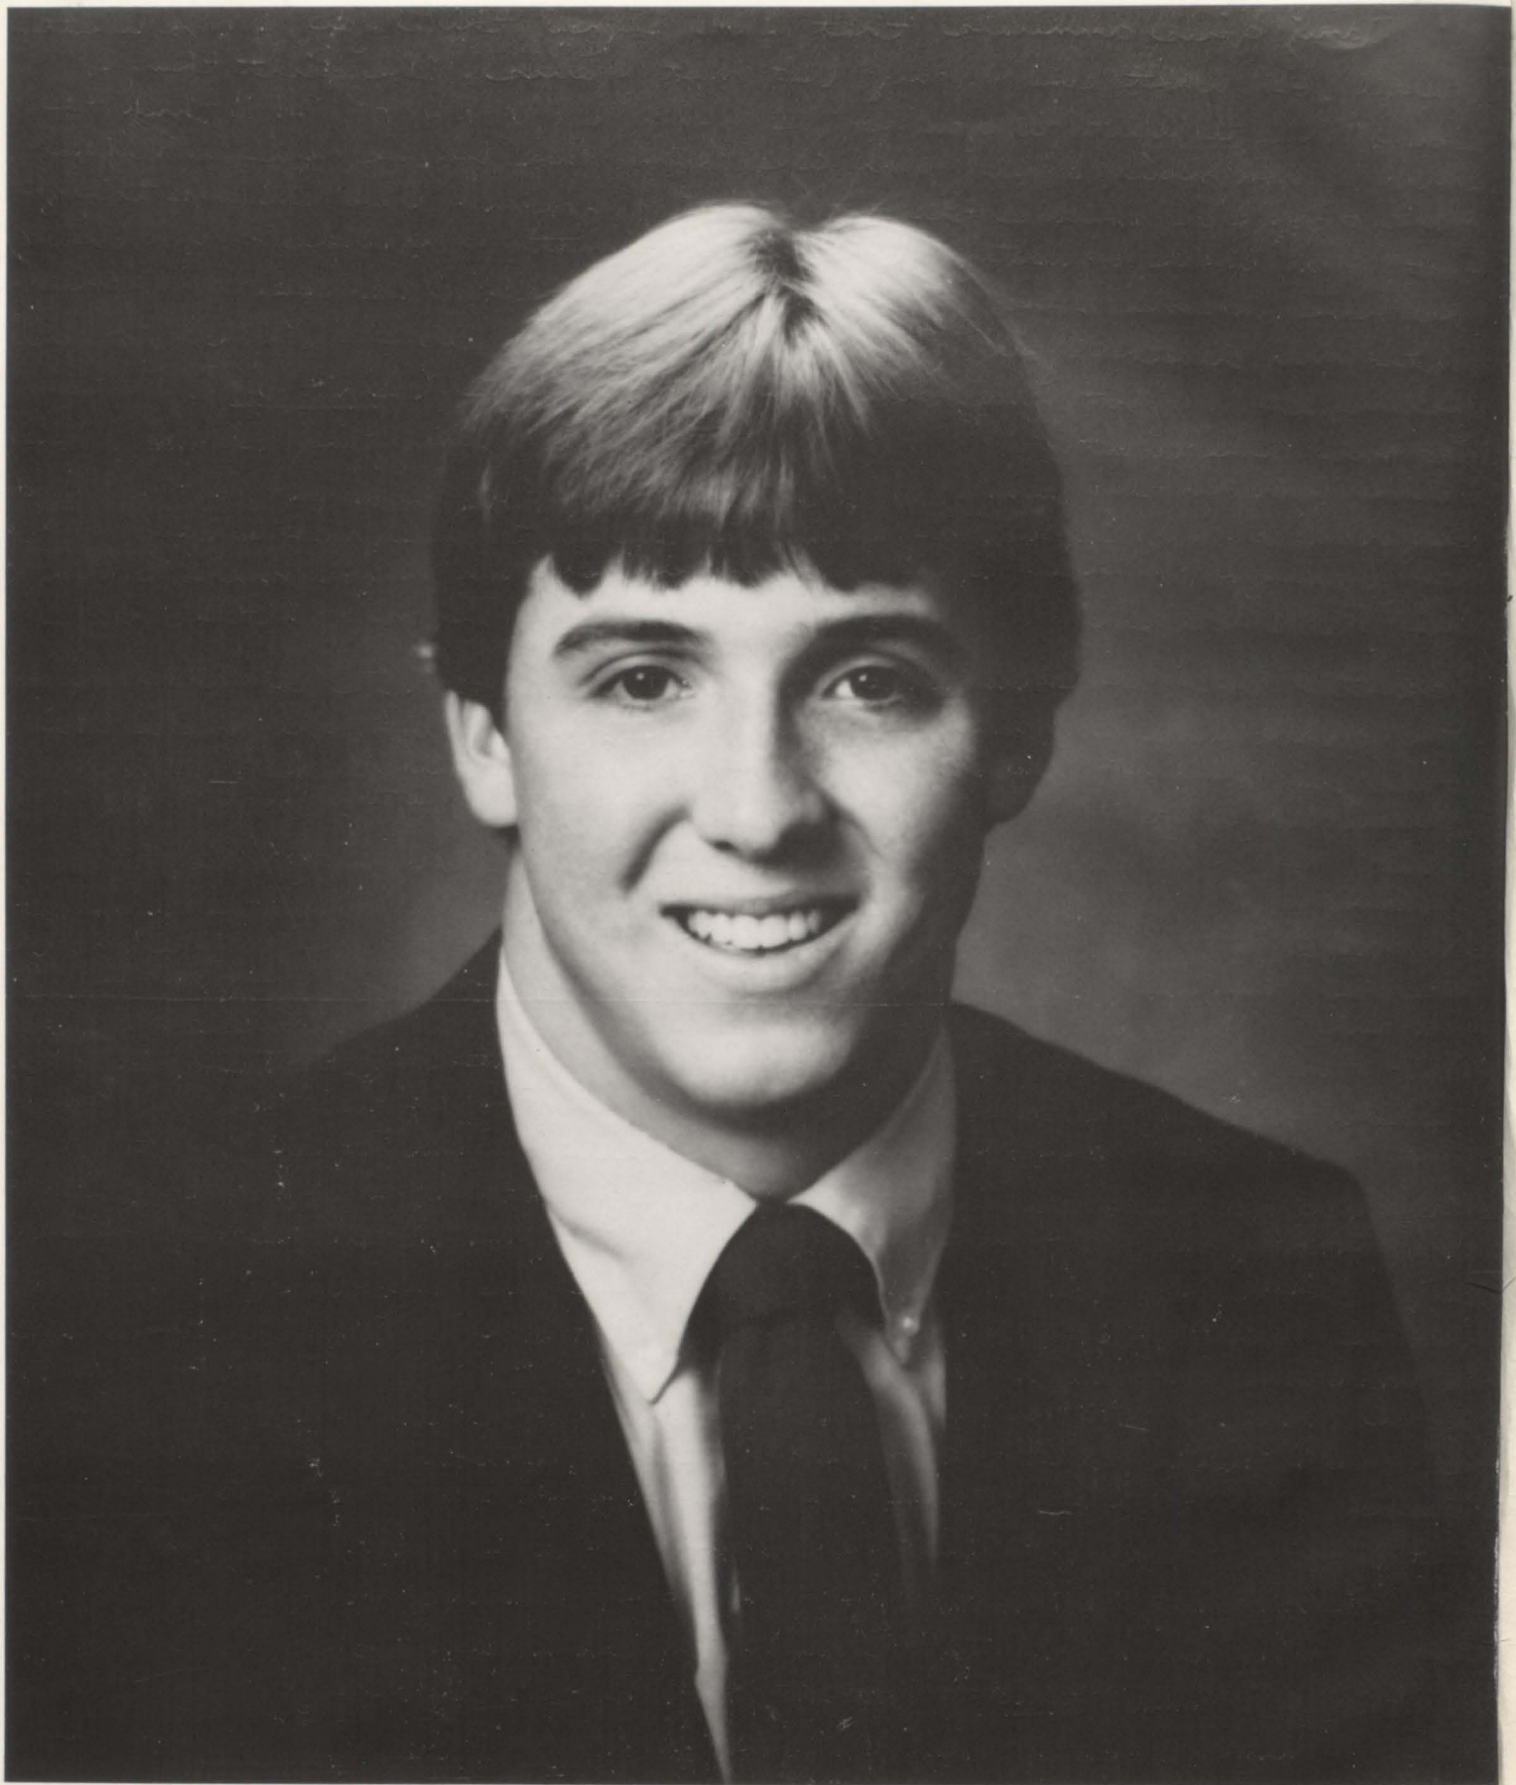

Council:

Goodbye is never easy, but I'd rather say goodbye with you loving me rather than hating me. You often wonder why I stay on you so hard. This is because I can see you're great potential. Both as a career woman as well as a wife and mother. I'd would hate to see you throw away these golden opportunities. You have one characteristic that no other senior holds. You are the only senior girl to ever turn me down on going out. (Tuscaloosa) That's O.K!! I'll get another chance one day. I'll keep trying until I succeed. That's the only way you'll ever become anybody. Jim, really is a "pretty swanky fellow ain't he?" He'll treat you fair (I think) but if he don't I'll have to come down hard on him. Once again Jennifer, "I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH" Not an intimate love, but a love of true friendship. This is a love that only you can ever destroy. No one else can do it, except me and I will never ever do that!! I promise!!

The final days quickly arrived for the class of 1985. As we looked back on what we were about to leave behind, we found many memorable times. It was here that many lasting friendships and special relationships were cemented. It was also here that we experienced the joy of success and happiness but learned to accept defeat and sorrow as well. Our experiences at Elba High School were the foundations for our lives ahead and the memory of those experiences is what we took with us as we departed from here and went our separate ways.
